GERMAN PRESS IS AROUSED

Demands that Germany be Insistent

AS GREAT BRITAIN HAS

Hamburg-American Steamer in Hands of Russian Prize Crew, Bound For Russian Port.

Beilin, July 23.—The backing down of Russia and its actions in granting all the demands of the British government, while at the same time it has failed so far even to indicate that it will grant Germany satisfaction for the Prinz Heinrich affair, has aroused the German press which is now freely criticizing Chancellor Von Bülow and his associates. They are accused of servility toward Russia and are urged to be at least as insistent as Great Britain has been.

AS "PRIZE OF WAR."

Hamburg-American Vessel in Russian Possession.

Suez, July 24.—The Hamburg-American steamer Sambla arrived here today flying a Russian flag and in possession of a prize crew. She will enter the canal immediately and proceed to a Russian port and a Russian prize court will pass upon the claim that she brought as a "prize of war."

WILL NOT DO IT AGAIN.

Russia Crosses Her Heart and Promises England.

St. Petersburg, July 23.—Russia has replied to England regarding the seizure of the Malacca and agrees that the vessel shall not be brought before a prize court. Russia further promises to see to it that no similar incident shall occur.

Etzel's Heirs Want More Money.

Washington, July 23.—Heirs of Louis Etzel, killed by Chinese soldiers near Newchwang, are dissatisfied with the amount of indemnity ($25,000 Mexican) paid by the Chinese government on account of the affair and have complained to the state department. The department has replied that in view of the facts in the case, the unprovoked character of the killing and the general practice of the American and other governments in fixing indemnities on account of death, particularly in allowing for foreigners killed in this country, the indemnity in this case is regarded as sufficient.

Seizure of Prinz Heinrich's Mail.

Berlin, July 23.—The German consul at Aden, Arabia, reporting the details of the seizure of the mails of the North German Lloyd steamer Prinz Heinrich in the Red sea July 15 by the Russian volunteer fleet vessel Smolensk, says that when the detained mail sacks were turned over to the British steamer Persia the Russian commander stated in a letter to the Persia's captain that two packages which had been retained were directed by the management of a German munition factory to a Japanese address at Nagasaki.

The Torpedoing of the Hipsang.

Chifu, July 23.—Russian refugees who have arrived here from Port Arthur report that the foreign vessel, supposedly a merchantman, which was sunk by the Russians off Port Arthur on July 16 was challenged from the forts and was then fired on. She did not stop, and therefore a torpedo boat dashed out and sank her. The refugees are unable to give the name of the ship, but think she was the Hipsang, belonging to the Indo-China Navigation company.

President Has Many Visitors.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 23.—President Roosevelt received several callers, including William L. Ward of Port Chester, member of the Republican national committee from New York; Charles S. Francis, ex-United States minister to Greece and editor of the Troy Times; John A. Steicher, editor of Leslie's Weekly and president of the Republican National Editorial association; and Edward F. Brown, a member of the Union League club of New York and a long time personal friend of the president. It is understood to be likely that Mr. Ward will be a member of the executive committee of the Republican national committee, and probably in the temporary absence of Chairman Cortelyou will be in charge of the national headquarters at New York.

Kaiser Entertains Americans.

Trondhjem, Norway, July 23.—The German emperor entertained at dinner on board the imperial yacht Hohenzollern Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Drexel of Philadelphia, Lady Compton, Captain Rose and B. W. van Voorhis from the Drexels' yacht Margarita, which is at this place.

WONDROUS DIAVOLO.

How the Texan, Who Loops the Loop, Emerged From Obscurity.

When, at Madison Square Garden, New York, the Great Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers United Shows, scored the record-breaking hit involved in the introduction of Diavolo's feat of looping the loop on a bicycle, few, if any, of the tens of thousands who gazed in apprehension's widest-eyed wonder at the thrilling innovation were aware that its achiever was neither a professional, nor even an ordinary amateur cyclist. The facts preceding his phenomenal leap into prominence and popularity are as follows, and but add to the marvelous character of his performance:

Diavolo, who in private life bears the much less lurid name of George M. Vandervoort, is a Texan by birth, and first became interested in the problem of circling a concentric coil awheel while engineering the machinery of one of the loop the loop cars at Coney Island, New York City. Several attempts were made by expert cyclists to circle the loop on a wheel, but all failed, fell, and were so seriously injured that the dangerous task was given up as impossible. Vandervoort, however, was firm in the belief that the feat could be accomplished and he accordingly set about learning to ride a bicycle. Two months later he made his first attempt at looping the loop, and, although unsuccessful, became convinced that the machinery should be reconstructed in order to perform the feat. This was done and three months later he made his first public appearance as above stated. All attempts to imitate his furious and fearsome ride have resulted in failure and disaster. He will appear at both performances at Montpelier, Thursday, August 4.

COTTON MILL WAR.

Massachusetts Arbitration Board Trying to Avert It.

Fall River, Mass., July 23.—The state board of arbitration has taken up the threatened rupture between the cotton manufacturers and the operatives over the reduction in wages announced to take place next Monday. There is little hope, however, on account of the bitter feeling on the part of the workmen and the determined attitude of the manufacturers, that the efforts to adjust matters will be successful. Members of the state board are here and have spent some time in conference with Mayor Grimes.

Calls have been issued to the members of the spinners and carders' unions, which, on Wednesday night, recorded less than a two-thirds vote in favor of the strike, to join the other unions in going out on Monday.

A call for a meeting of the Textile Council on Saturday night has been issued, where such details for the management of the strike as are necessary will be arranged. The manufacturers are still discussing the situation, both sides being firm.

SUMMER CHURCH GARB.

Various Nations of Ministers as to Dress of Their Flocks.

The Rev. Dr. Daniel McGurk, pastor of the First Methodist church at Cedar Falls, Ia., and one of the leading lecturers of the state, created a sensation the other Sunday evening by appearing in his pulpit in his shirt sleeves, says a Des Moines dispatch. The hot night had caused him to lay aside his ministerial garb, and he mounted the rostrum wiping the perspiration from his face.

Turning to his congregation he politely advised the male members of his church to doff their coats that they might enjoy comfort in church.

Hatless women will no longer be permitted to enter Trinity Episcopal church at Asbury Park, N. J., since the Rev. A. L. Langley, its clergyman, recently announced that the presence of "informally" dressed persons is not desired. He served notice that hereafter women who appear at the church door without some sort of proper head covering will be refused admittance.

It is probable that the clerical prohibition will be the means of keeping away feminine members of the congregation, but Dr. Langley is firm in his stand, and if necessary he will have a placard placed in the church stating that women must wear the proper headgear to gain entrance.

The Rev. I. H. Albright, pastor of the Salem United Brethren in Christ church at Lebanon, Pa., who recently extended an invitation to shirt waist men to attend Sunday church service, preached the other day in his shirt sleeves. The Rev. Mr. Albright believes it is no sin to propound the gospel while coatless, and members of his congregation endorse him in his plan of enjoying solid comfort while attending service. Men now come to church coatless and women without hats. Members of the mixed choir also have adopted dress reform.

The Mexican Duel.

In Mexico the family of a dead duelist can claim support from the person who shot him.

Tracing Ocean Currents.

Ocean currents may be traced by bottles. Along the coast of Spain sealed bottles are tossed overboard and allowed to drift. They almost invariably drift to the shores of America.

Curly Hair in Japan.

If a Japanese lady has the misfortune to possess curly hair she devotes as much time and trouble to make it smooth as do European ladies, with curling tongs and pins, to make their curly.

A Courageous Doctor.

Oakland, Cal., July 23.—While Dr. Emerson was operating on Mrs. B. Robinson at her home two small children set the premises on fire. To have deserted his patient would have resulted in her death, so the physician completed his work, though the smoke became so blinding that he scarcely could see. When the operation was completed he carried his unconscious patient down a stairway to a place of safety.

WE TURNED THE TABLES

Barre-Montpelier Beat Cubans Yesterday

IN A CLOSE BALL GAME

Burlington Won From Plattsburg in Exhibition Game—Clerks Defeated By St. Monics.

Costly errors lost the game for the dusky Cuban X Glants in the exhibition game yesterday afternoon, the Barre-Montpelier winning out by the close score of 4 to 3. The Cubans outbatted and outfielded the locals but they couldn't beat out their lead of the third inning. Ball pitched for the Cubans and was not as effective as Buckner who pitched the day before. Shatter, the deaf and dumb man, pitched his first game for the Inter-city team and made a very favorable impression. He struck out four of the visitors and allowed but eight hits. Jackson batted out a home run over the center field fence, making the Cubans' only run after the third inning. Stewart hit well for the locals, making two hits and one run. There was an attendance of 700.

The score by innings:

B. M.	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
X Glants	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	3

A POOR EXHIBITION.

Burlington Beat Plattsburg Yesterday But It Doesn't Count.

Burlington, July 23.—In a listless and rather stupid exhibition of baseball yesterday Plattsburg was defeated by Burlington in an exhibition game by a score of 7 to 5. A small crowd was in attendance, and the "exhibition" did not seem to please them altogether. Plattsburg obtained a lead of three to two in the fifth. In the sixth by a combination of stupid errors on the part of Burlington, the locals made five runs. In the eighth the visitors got into the game again and made two more, being blanked in the ninth. Washburn and Kane were the opposing pitchers and both were touched up liberally. Two spectacular errors were Stroh's failing to hold the ball in his hand when he tried to touch Brennan out who was running home and Kane's inability to pick up a grounder batted to him.

Score by innings:

Burlington	0	1	0	1	5	0	0	7
Plattsburg	1	0	1	0	0	2	0	5

Batteries: Washburn and Brennan; Kane and Stroh.

STILL UNBEATEN.

St. Monica's Team Won Over Clerks Yesterday 13 to 10.

The unbeaten St. Monica's ball team added another to its list of victories yesterday afternoon when they took the clerks into camp to the tune of 13 to 10. The game was a literal comedy of errors from the spectators' point of view and very uninteresting to watch. Bemis started in to twirl the sphere for the clerks but lasted only three innings, during which the boys of St. Monica's crossed the slab for ten runs. In the fourth Knapp was put into the box and for a while it looked as though he would "get his." But it proved only temporary, for after this inning St. Monica's did not score and could make only four hits off Knapp's delivery.

The features of the game were the all-around work of Jimmy Murray, Hutehinson's double play unassisted in the sixth and Wheeler's work out of a hole in the ninth when after Murray had knocked out a three-bagger, he struck out the next three men to face him.

The line-ups were:
Clerks—Wheeler, c.; Bemis, p. and 3rd; Hutehinson, 1st.; Perry, 2nd.; Smith, s. s.; Knapp, 3rd. and p.; White, 1. f.; Baldwin, c. f.; McLean, r. f.
St. Monica's—Kennick, c.; LeClair, p.; Garretty, 1st.; Lesore, 2nd.; Murray, s. s.; Morrison, 3rd.; Bennett, 1. f.; E. White, c. f.; A. White, 1. f.
Umpire, V. Brown.

BASE BALL NOTES.

Stewart's batting recently has justified his being placed second on the batting list.

There is no use in opposing teams trying to rattle our new pitcher by noise. He is rattle-proof so far as that is concerned.

Johnson who was released by the Barre-Montpelier management, goes to Boston today. He has been enjoying the last games from the grandstand.

Yesterday the local team made less hits than their opponents and made more errors, yet they won the game. The Cubans' misplays came at critical stages. If the Northern league magnates are looking for the best man to umpire, and could get him, they would by all means choose Frank M. Brown of this city. There is no more fair man in the umpire's position than this man Brown and what he doesn't know about base ball isn't worth knowing. If they could get him to umpire there would be less protesting.

THEIR OPENING DAY.

Merchant and Fraser's Store on No. Main Street.

Today is the opening day at Merchant & Fraser's new store, the Economic. Everything is spick and span and ready for inspection. The windows are very artistically trimmed. As one enters the store the window on the right is filled with various kinds of groceries while the window on the left contains all kinds of fruits and vegetables. They were decorated under the supervision of Jack Hanson. In the center of the store is a long table which runs from the door to a bank of ferns and flowers at the rear. Flowers are placed here and there around the store and add much to the beauty of the place.

The clerks in the store are Chas. Sharkey, Tom Peters, Bert Mercer, Geraldus Knapp, Chas. Hart, Lew Roberts and William Downie. The meat department is in charge of Frank Hutchins.

RECEIVED ELECTRIC SHOCK.

Burlington Deputy Sheriff Intends to Sue For It.

Burlington, July 23.—Deputy Sheriff James Fine intends to be paid for the damages incurred to him on July 23, when he received an electric shock on the Winooki bridge and his horse was knocked down. That was the day of the severe thunder storm. Deputy Fine and Samuel Berger were returning from a trip to Essex Junction with Fine's team during the storm. The Winooki bridge, over which feed wires pass, became charged with electricity and both men were shocked while driving their team across. Fine claims he was sick for some time after. The horse was stunned and did not come around for an hour. Fine has notified the board of aldermen of Burlington and the selectmen of Colchester that he intends instituting suits for damages.
